

AFL/VFL Combined Past Players' Association Inc
EST: 1959

PAST PLAYER REGISTRATION FORM

Established in 1959 the X-Men - AFL/ VFL Combined Past Players Association is the primary Association for former VFL/AFL Past Players and Officials. We provide a home, sense of belonging and acknowledgement for what Australian Rules footballers have contributed to the sport, whilst assisting current day AFL players to make an easier transition from hero status to "Former AFL footballer".

- If you are a former past player who made the senior list in a club (VFL and AFL), then you are entitled to be a member of the X-Men - AFL/ VFL Combined Past Players Association.
- Membership is free.
- Attend social and sporting functions with fellow past players.
- Provide support to junior sport development; help local/ regional football and netball clubs, by providing skills training, mentoring programs, sports administration, player appearances and fundraising.
- Gain access to services provided by our corporate partners.
- X-Men - AFL/ VFL Combined Past Players is a non profit organization.

The X-Men has unshakable commitment to the community; recognize the heritage of Australian Rules Football, is built on a foundation of independence; enjoys a strong profile and image.

As we are a non profit organization, the easiest way for us provide you with information is via e-mail. We are currently updating our web services and once finished you will receive our E-NEWS letter.
